

Stylesheet for the presentation of doctoral theses
International Doctoral School of the University of Vigo (EIDO)
(approved by the Executive Committee on 4 March 2016 and modified on 29 September 2016)

I. Printed version of the dissertation

(i) Cover: The cover will be designed following the template in Annex 1, with the following mandatory elements:

- Logo (not seal) of the University of Vigo: Universida<sub>de</sub>Vigo
- “EIDO International Doctoral School”
- “DOCTORAL DISSERTATION”
- Title of the dissertation
- Name of the PhD student
- Year (official submission/deposit)
- “International mention” (if applicable)

[The cover must not contain other logos, names of university centers, research groups, etc. Only logos of non-university institutions which, as stated on the accreditation report, are formal members of the programme and where most of the thesis has been developed, can be added on the cover.]

(ii) Spine: It should include these elements in portrait (bottom-up) alignment:

- Name of the PhD student
- “DOCTORAL DISSERTATION”
- Title of the dissertation
- Year (official submission/deposit)

(iii) Frontpage: The template in Annex 2 will be used in the design of the frontpage.

(iv) Supervision declaration: The template in Annex 3 will be used in the design of this page.

By way of recommendation,

- The font used especially in the sections described here should be New Baskerville
- Page 3 could contain the dedication and acknowledgments that the author wishes to express
- Page 4 and following pages may contain the table of contents
- The lists of symbols, abbreviations, acronyms, tables, figures, etc. could follow.

II. Digital version of the dissertation

The (also mandatory) digital version (on CD-ROM, DVD, etc.) must contain a PDF version of the paper version of the dissertation, preferably in a single file, with exactly the same elements of the paper version. The digital copy should be identified by a printed cover and physical package (plastic box, etc.) that respects the design of the cover template of the the paper version (Annex 1).
